UM ART AUCTION
GARNERS $459 IN SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Bruce Barton, chairman of the University of Montana Department of Art, said a total of $459 in scholarship funds for UM art students was obtained recently during the University Women's Club Art Auction.

A variety of art objects and food, candy and kitchen goods were donated and sold during the auction.

The program was organized by Mrs. Lela Autio and Mrs. Nancy Erickson, wives of UM faculty members.

Barton said one of the most unusual items contributed for the auction was "an object of art of some undetermined merit." The object, a stone nailed to a piece of wood, was contributed by the UM Department of Anthropology.

About five UM art students will receive scholarships as a result of the auction.
